

EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

Policies & Procedures v2024.1

This document contains the operating principles of OmniCorp. Please read carefully.

Generated by HR Dept.

1. Remote Work & Flexibility

OmniCorp believes in a balanced lifestyle. Standard Policy: Employees are eligible to work remotely up to 3 days per week (Tue/Wed/Thu). Mondays and Fridays are core in-office days to facilitate team bonding. Requests must be logged in the HR portal 24 hours in advance.

As part of our organization's commitment to fostering a flexible and productive work environment, we are pleased to introduce the Remote Work Equipment Stipend policy. This policy is designed to provide employees with the necessary tools and resources to effectively perform their job duties while working remotely. The stipend will be available to all eligible employees who are approved to work remotely on a regular basis, as determined by their manager and in accordance with our organization's Remote Work Policy. The stipend will be used to reimburse employees for the purchase of equipment and software necessary to perform their job duties, including but not limited to:

- * Laptop or desktop computer
- * High-speed internet service
- * Printer and scanner
- * Headset or speakerphone
- * Video conferencing software
- * Other equipment and software as approved by management.

The Remote Work Equipment Stipend will be administered in accordance with the following guidelines:

- * The stipend will be provided on an annual basis, with a maximum reimbursement amount of $1,000 per year
- * Employees will be required to submit a request for reimbursement, including receipts and a detailed description of the equipment or software purchased
- * Reimbursement requests must be approved by the employee's manager and the IT department prior to reimbursement
- * The stipend may only be used for equipment and software that is directly related to the employee's job duties and is approved by management
- * Employees will be required to return any company-purchased equipment and software upon termination of employment or upon request by management. It is the employee's responsibility to ensure that all equipment and software is properly maintained and secured, and that all company data is protected in accordance with our organization's Data Security Policy.

In order to ensure compliance with our organization's financial policies and procedures, the Remote Work Equipment Stipend will be subject to the following terms and conditions:

- * The stipend will be considered taxable income to the employee, and will be reported on the employee's W-2 form
- * The stipend will be reimbursed

2. Workplace Harassment Prevention

The organization is committed to maintaining a workplace environment that is free from harassment, intimidation, and retaliation, and is dedicated to promoting a culture of respect, inclusivity, and professionalism. As such, it is the policy of the organization to prohibit and prevent all forms of workplace harassment, including but not limited to:

- * Verbal or physical conduct that is unwelcome, intimidating, or hostile
- * Unwanted sexual advances or requests for sexual favors
- * Offensive jokes, slurs, or epithets
- * Display or distribution of offensive materials
- * Retaliation against individuals who report or participate in an investigation of harassment. All employees, contractors, and third-party vendors are expected to adhere to this policy and to report any incidents of harassment to their supervisor, HR representative, or other designated authority.

The organization will take all complaints of workplace harassment seriously and will conduct prompt, thorough, and impartial investigations into all allegations. The investigation process will include, but not be limited to:

- * Gathering and reviewing relevant evidence and witness statements
- * Interviewing the complainant, the alleged harasser, and any witnesses
- * Analyzing the findings and determining whether a violation of this policy has occurred
- * Taking corrective action, up to and including disciplinary measures, against any individual found to have engaged in harassment. The organization will also provide support and resources to employees who have experienced harassment, including counseling, training, and other forms of assistance. Furthermore, the organization will ensure that all employees are aware of this policy and their roles and responsibilities in preventing and reporting workplace harassment through regular training and education programs.

In order to ensure compliance with this policy, the organization will establish and maintain a comprehensive workplace harassment prevention program, which will include:

- * Regular training and education programs for all employees
- * A clear and confidential reporting process for complaints of harassment
- * A prompt and thorough investigation process for all allegations of harassment
- * Disciplinary measures for individuals found to have engaged in harassment
- * Ongoing monitoring and evaluation

Ref: POL-320-WOR

3. Social Media Usage Guidelines

As a representative of our organization, it is imperative that all employees adhere to the Social Media Usage Guidelines outlined in this policy section. The purpose of this policy is to ensure that employees' use of social media platforms, both personally and professionally, aligns with the company's values, mission, and brand identity. To achieve this, the following guidelines must be observed:

- * All employees are expected to maintain a professional online presence, refraining from posting content that could be perceived as derogatory, defamatory, or discriminatory towards the company, its employees, customers, or stakeholders.
- * Employees are prohibited from sharing confidential or proprietary information, including but not limited to trade secrets, financial data, or sensitive business information, on social media platforms.
- * The use of social media for personal purposes during work hours is strictly limited, and employees are expected to prioritize their work responsibilities and maintain productivity levels.

In order to ensure compliance with these guidelines, the organization will provide regular training and awareness programs to educate employees on the responsible use of social media. Additionally, the company reserves the right to monitor and review employee social media activity, particularly in instances where it is suspected that an employee has violated this policy. Employees are also expected to report any instances of social media misuse or harassment to their supervisor or HR representative, who will investigate and address the matter in accordance with the company's disciplinary procedures. The key principles underlying this policy are:

- * Respect for the company's reputation and brand identity
- * Protection of confidential and proprietary information
- * Maintenance of a professional online presence
- * Adherence to applicable laws and regulations, including but not limited to copyright, trademark, and data protection laws.

The organization recognizes that social media can be a valuable tool for business purposes, such as marketing, customer engagement, and thought leadership. However, it is crucial that employees use social media in a manner that is consistent with the company's overall strategy and messaging. To facilitate this, the company will establish a social media governance framework,

Ref: POL-370-SOC

4. Corporate Travel & Expense Reporting

As part of our organization's ongoing efforts to optimize operational efficiency and maintain fiscal responsibility, the Corporate Travel & Expense Reporting policy has been established to provide a comprehensive framework for employees to follow when incurring business-related expenses while traveling on behalf of the company. This policy applies to all employees, regardless of job function or level, and is intended to ensure that all travel and entertainment expenses are reasonable, necessary, and properly documented. Key components of this policy include:

- * Pre-trip approval requirements for all travel-related expenses exceeding $1,000
- * Mandatory use of company-approved travel vendors and booking platforms
- * Strict adherence to per diem rates and expense reimbursement guidelines
- * Timely submission of expense reports, with all supporting documentation, within 10 business days of trip completion.

In order to facilitate seamless and efficient expense reporting, employees are required to utilize the company's online expense management system, which provides a user-friendly interface for submitting and tracking expenses. This system enables employees to easily upload receipts, assign expenses to specific projects or departments, and receive automated notifications regarding the status of their expense reports. Furthermore, the system is integrated with our accounting and financial management software, allowing for streamlined reimbursement processing and enhanced visibility into company-wide travel and entertainment expenditures. It is the responsibility of each employee to ensure that all expenses are accurately recorded, properly categorized, and compliant with company policies and procedures.

To ensure compliance with this policy and to mitigate potential risks associated with non-compliant expense reporting, the following procedures will be implemented:

- * Regular audits of expense reports to verify accuracy and adherence to policy guidelines
- * Mandatory training sessions for all employees on the proper use of the expense management system and company travel policies
- * Disciplinary actions, up to and including reimbursement of improperly claimed expenses, for employees found to be in non-compliance with this policy
- * Annual review and update of this policy to reflect changes in company operations, industry best practices, and relevant laws and regulations. By adhering to this policy,

Ref: POL-629-COR

5. Intellectual Property Rights

As a cornerstone of our organization's innovative endeavors, the protection and management of Intellectual Property (IP) Rights is of paramount importance. In accordance with our corporate governance framework, it is imperative that all employees, contractors, and third-party vendors adhere to the stipulations outlined in this policy section. The following key principles shall guide our approach to IP Rights:

- * All intellectual property created, developed, or acquired by employees, contractors, or third-party vendors in the course of their work or under the auspices of our organization shall be deemed the exclusive property of the company.
- * Employees, contractors, and third-party vendors shall assign to the company all right, title, and interest in and to any intellectual property created, developed, or acquired, and shall cooperate with the company in perfecting and maintaining its rights thereto.
- * The company reserves the right to protect its IP Rights through various means, including but not limited to, patents, trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets, and shall take all necessary steps to prevent unauthorized use, disclosure, or misappropriation of its IP Rights.

In order to ensure the effective management and protection of our IP Rights, the following procedures shall be implemented:

- * All employees, contractors, and third-party vendors shall be required to sign a confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement prior to commencing work on any project or initiative that may involve the creation, development, or acquisition of intellectual property.
- * The company shall maintain a centralized registry of all IP Rights, which shall be updated and reviewed on a regular basis to ensure accuracy and completeness.
- * Employees, contractors, and third-party vendors shall be required to report any potential IP Rights infringements or breaches to the designated IP Rights officer, who shall investigate and take prompt action to mitigate any potential risks or damages.

In the event of any infringement or breach of our IP Rights, the company shall take swift and decisive action to protect its interests, including but not limited to, seeking injunctive relief, filing lawsuits, and

Ref: POL-359-INT

6. Conflict of Interest

As a fundamental principle of our organization's code of conduct, it is essential that all employees, officers, and directors adhere to the Conflict of Interest policy, which is designed to prevent any situation that may compromise the integrity, objectivity, and impartiality of our decision-making processes. A conflict of interest arises when an individual's personal interests, financial or otherwise, may influence or appear to influence their professional judgment, potentially leading to decisions that are not in the best interest of the organization. To mitigate such risks, the following guidelines must be observed:

- * All employees, officers, and directors must disclose any potential conflicts of interest to their supervisor or the HR department, utilizing the Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form (COIDF-001).
- * Employees, officers, and directors must refrain from engaging in any activities, financial or personal, that may create a conflict of interest, including but not limited to:
 - + Holding a financial interest in a competitor or supplier
 - + Engaging in outside employment or consulting that may compete with the organization's interests
 - + Participating in decision-making processes that may benefit personal interests
- * The organization reserves the right to investigate any potential conflicts of interest and take corrective action, up to and including termination of employment, if deemed necessary to protect the organization's interests.

In order to ensure compliance with this policy, all employees, officers, and directors are required to undergo regular training and education on conflict of interest awareness, utilizing the organization's Learning Management System (LMS). Additionally, the organization will conduct periodic audits and reviews to monitor compliance with this policy, and will maintain a record of all disclosures and actions taken in response to potential conflicts of interest. It is the responsibility of all employees, officers, and directors to report any suspected conflicts of interest to their supervisor or the HR department, and to cooperate fully with any investigations or inquiries related to potential conflicts of interest. Failure to comply with this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment,

Ref: POL-714-CON

7. Data Privacy & GDPR Compliance

As a cornerstone of our organization's commitment to ethical business practices, the Data Privacy & GDPR Compliance policy is designed to ensure the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of personal data, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and other applicable data protection laws. This policy applies to all employees, contractors, and third-party vendors who handle personal data on behalf of the organization, and outlines the procedures and guidelines for collecting, storing, processing, and transferring personal data. Key principles of this policy include:

- * Data minimization: only collecting and processing personal data that is necessary for legitimate business purposes
- * Data accuracy: ensuring that personal data is accurate, complete, and up-to-date
- * Data retention: implementing data retention policies that ensure personal data is not kept for longer than necessary
- * Data security: implementing robust security measures to protect personal data against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction.

To ensure GDPR compliance, the organization will implement the following measures:

- * Conducting regular data protection impact assessments to identify and mitigate risks to personal data
- * Appointing a Data Protection Officer (DPO) to oversee data protection practices and ensure compliance with GDPR
- * Providing training and awareness programs for employees and contractors on data protection best practices and GDPR requirements
- * Establishing incident response procedures to handle data breaches and other security incidents
- * Reviewing and updating data processing agreements with third-party vendors to ensure GDPR compliance.

The organization will also maintain a record of processing activities, including the purposes of processing, categories of personal data, and categories of data subjects, to demonstrate compliance with GDPR's accountability principle.

In the event of a data breach or other security incident, the organization will follow established incident response procedures, which include:

- * Notifying the affected data subjects and relevant regulatory authorities within the required timeframe
- * Conducting a thorough investigation to determine the cause and scope of the breach
- * Implementing corrective actions to prevent similar breaches from occurring in the future
- * Reviewing

Ref: POL-162-DAT

8. Dress Code & Office Etiquette

As a representative of our organization, it is imperative that all employees adhere to a professional dress code and exhibit exemplary office etiquette at all times. The purpose of this policy is to establish a standard of dress and behavior that aligns with our company's values and mission, while also ensuring a safe, respectful, and productive work environment. The following guidelines outline the expected dress code and office etiquette standards:

- * Business attire is required for all employees, including but not limited to: dress pants or skirts, blouses or dress shirts, and closed-toe shoes.
- * Clothing should be clean, ironed, and in good condition, with no excessive wear or tear.
- * Logos, graphics, or other forms of expression on clothing should be tasteful and not detract from the professional image of the company.
- * Personal grooming and hygiene are also expected to be maintained at a high standard, with attention to detail regarding hair, nails, and body odor.

In addition to the dress code, office etiquette is a critical component of our organizational culture. Employees are expected to conduct themselves in a respectful and courteous manner at all times, including but not limited to:

- * Greeting colleagues and visitors in a friendly and professional manner.
- * Refraining from using strong perfumes, colognes, or other scented products that may cause discomfort to others.
- * Keeping workstations clean and organized, with minimal personal items on display.
- * Avoiding loud conversations, phone calls, or other distractions that may disrupt the work environment.
- * Respecting shared spaces, such as the break room and restrooms, and reporting any maintenance or cleanliness issues to the facilities team.

To ensure compliance with this policy, employees are expected to take an active role in maintaining a professional and respectful work environment. Supervisors and managers will also be responsible for monitoring and addressing any dress code or office etiquette issues that may arise, providing feedback and coaching as necessary. Repeated or egregious violations of this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to

Ref: POL-496-DRE

9. Emergency Evacuation Procedures

Emergency Evacuation Procedures Policy Section 3.1: In the event of an emergency situation that necessitates the immediate evacuation of the premises, all employees, contractors, and visitors are expected to adhere to the guidelines outlined in this policy. The primary objective of this policy is to ensure the safe and efficient evacuation of all individuals from the building, thereby minimizing the risk of injury or harm. To achieve this objective, the following procedures will be implemented:

- * Activation of the emergency alarm system, which will trigger a audible and visual signal to alert all occupants of the need to evacuate
- * Designation of primary and secondary evacuation routes, which will be clearly marked and communicated to all employees and visitors
- * Establishment of assembly points outside the building, where employees and visitors will gather to account for all individuals and await further instructions from emergency response personnel.

The Emergency Evacuation Team (EET) will be responsible for coordinating and executing the evacuation procedures, and will comprise of designated employees who have received training on emergency response protocols. The EET will be responsible for:

- * Conducting regular evacuation drills to ensure that all employees and visitors are familiar with the procedures
- * Maintaining accurate records of evacuation drills and training sessions
- * Coordinating with emergency response personnel, such as fire departments and paramedics, to ensure a timely and effective response to emergency situations
- * Reviewing and updating the emergency evacuation procedures on a regular basis to ensure that they remain effective and compliant with relevant regulations and standards.

In the event of an emergency evacuation, all employees and visitors are expected to:

- * Immediately stop all activities and proceed to the nearest exit
- * Follow the designated evacuation route to the assembly point outside the building
- * Not use elevators, which may be compromised in an emergency situation
- * Not attempt to fight fires or respond to emergency situations, unless they have received proper training and equipment
- * Cooperate with the EET and emergency response personnel, and follow all instructions and guidance provided

Ref: POL-899-EME

10. Performance Review Cycle

The Performance Review Cycle (PRC) is a critical component of our organization's talent management framework, designed to facilitate ongoing employee development, enhance job performance, and drive business outcomes. The PRC is a structured process that enables managers and employees to engage in regular, constructive dialogue regarding job expectations, goals, and achievements. The cycle is comprised of several key stages, including:

- * Goal Setting: The establishment of clear, measurable, and achievable objectives that align with departmental and organizational priorities
- * Ongoing Feedback: Regular check-ins and coaching sessions between managers and employees to discuss progress, address challenges, and provide constructive feedback
- * Mid-Cycle Review: A formal assessment of employee performance at the midpoint of the review cycle, intended to identify areas of strength and weakness, and inform adjustments to goals and development plans
- * Final Evaluation: A comprehensive evaluation of employee performance at the conclusion of the review cycle, which informs merit-based compensation decisions, promotions, and other talent management initiatives.

To ensure the effective implementation of the PRC, the following guidelines and protocols will be observed:

- * All employees will participate in the PRC, with the exception of new hires who will be exempt from the cycle for a period of six months from their date of hire
- * Managers will be responsible for initiating and facilitating the PRC, with support from HR Business Partners as needed
- * Employees will be expected to actively engage in the PRC, including preparing for and participating in goal setting, feedback, and evaluation sessions
- * The PRC will be aligned with the organization's fiscal year, with the cycle commencing on January 1st and concluding on December 31st. The HR department will provide training and resources to support managers and employees in navigating the PRC, and will monitor and evaluate the effectiveness of the cycle on an ongoing basis.

The PRC will be governed by the following key performance indicators (KPIs), which will be used to measure the effectiveness of the cycle and inform future enhancements

Ref: POL-281-PER

11. Mental Health & Wellbeing Resources

The organization is committed to fostering a supportive and inclusive work environment that prioritizes the mental health and wellbeing of all employees. As such, we have established a comprehensive suite of resources and initiatives designed to promote emotional resilience, mitigate stress, and facilitate access to professional support services. These resources include, but are not limited to:

- * Employee Assistance Programs (EAPs) providing confidential counseling and coaching services
- * Mental health awareness training and educational workshops
- * Access to mindfulness and stress management tools, such as meditation and yoga classes
- * A dedicated wellbeing portal offering self-directed learning modules, health assessments, and personalized recommendations for improvement
- * Managerial training programs focused on recognizing and responding to mental health concerns in the workplace. By providing these resources, we aim to create a culture that encourages open dialogue, reduces stigma, and empowers employees to take proactive steps towards maintaining their mental wellbeing.

The organization recognizes that mental health and wellbeing are essential components of overall employee health, and that supporting these aspects is critical to driving business success and promoting a positive work environment. To this end, we have established a Mental Health and Wellbeing Steering Committee, comprising representatives from HR, Occupational Health, and senior management, to oversee the development and implementation of our mental health strategy. This committee is responsible for:

- * Conducting regular reviews of our mental health and wellbeing resources to ensure they remain relevant and effective
- * Identifying areas for improvement and developing targeted initiatives to address emerging trends and concerns
- * Collaborating with external partners and stakeholders to stay abreast of best practices and industry developments
- * Providing guidance and support to employees and managers on mental health-related matters, including reasonable adjustments and accommodations. By taking a proactive and holistic approach to mental health and wellbeing, we aim to create a work environment that is supportive, inclusive, and conducive to employee thriving.

The organization is committed to ensuring that all employees feel empowered to prioritize their mental health and wellbeing, without fear of stigma or reprisal. To support this goal, we have

Ref: POL-853-MEN

APPENDIX B: Holiday Schedule

The following dates are observed company holidays:

DATE	EVENT	OFFICE STATUS
-----	-----	-----
Jan 01	New Year's	Closed
Jul 04	Independence Day	Open (Voluntary)
Dec 25	Christmas	Closed

Note: Floating holidays must be used by Q3.

URGENT AMENDMENT: Remote Work Update (June 2024)

Effective immediately, the Remote Work Policy (Section 1) is superseded by this amendment. Due to real estate utilization requirements, remote work is now limited to 1 day per week maximum. This day must be a Friday. All other days require in-person attendance.

IT Security: Password Complexity

To ensure security, all passwords must be exactly 14 characters long. Passwords shorter or longer than 14 characters will be rejected.